Died

FYOCK—Anna L. Fyock, April 2, 1902, aged 61 years, three months and one day. She was a faithful member of the Brethren church, Pittsburg, Pa., coming to us shortly after our organization. Tho not in the city all the time she still held her membership with the Brethren. Many tried to persuade her to withdraw and unite with them, but to no avail. She was sound in the faith, and would not be moved. She loved the church and its people. Her dying message thru them to me was, "ask them to remember me and pray for me and I will pray that the Lord's will be done." By her departure the church lost a faithful mother in Israel. We looked to her for spiritual advice and comfort which she could give so pleasantly and willingly. Sister Fyock leaves two sons and one daughter to mourn the loss. Services by the writer.

D. J. BOLE.

ESTEP—James Bernard Grant Estep, April 11, 1902, aged 5 mo's and 19 days. Death occurred at Fairplay, Bedford Co. Interment at Liberty church, services by writer.

J. R. KELLER.

CAMEVER—Daniel C. Camever, April 16, 1902, aged 70 yrs, 11 mo's and three days. He was one of 12 children, only one brother left of the twelve. He was unmarried, and had never professed religion. He was born and spent his entire life in Martinsburg, Pa. Funeral services by the writer, from Job 14: 14 first clause.

J. R. KELLER.

REAM—Miss Anna Lindsey, daughter of William and Mary Lindsay, April 23, 1902, aged 40 years, two months and nine days. She was married to Leolin Ream January 14, 1882. To this union were born six children, two sons and four daughters, one son and one daughter having preceded their mother to the spirit world. She leaves a husband, four children, four sisters and four brothers to mourn their loss. Sister Ream was a member of the Brethren church at North Manchester for several years from which place the funeral occurred.

STOFFER—Earl Harold Stoffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Stoffer of North Georgetown, April 27, 1902, aged 2 yrs. 11 mo. 21 days. Funeral service conducted by the writer in the Brethren church at North Georgetown. Text Matt. 18: 14. May the Lord bless this bereft family.

ALVIN BYERS.

ARMSTRONG—William Armstrong, April 14, 1902, aged 78 years, two months, and nine days. He suffered greatly during the last few weeks of his life, but he bore his suffering patiently and the end was calm and peaceful. He said to his friends that as to the future, all is well. In 1862 he enlisted in the army and was a member of the 21st Battery Indiana Vol., and remained until the close of the war. In 1871 he married Martha Grant, who with three daughters, one son, two brothers and two sisters still survive him and mourn their loss. He was a kind and indulgent father, and his absence will be keenly felt in the home. He was a member of the Brethren church at Warsaw, Ind., and lived a Christian life for a number of years. His pastor, brother C. F. Yoder being away, the services were conducted by the Rev. Mull of the U. B. church. Interment at Center, Ind.
